Anti-Money Laundering

In accordance with UK legislation relating to the prevention of Money Laundering we may need to verify your identity. This may include the use of a credit reference agency who will record that an enquiry has been made (this should not affect your credit rating) or requesting further information from you. This may delay dealing on your behalf or mean we cannot deal at all.

Data Privacy Policy

The personal data you supply here may be processed for the purposes of (i) confirming and verifying your identity (this may involve the use of a credit reference agency or other third parties acting as our agents). We may also screen against publicly available government and/or law enforcement agency sanctions lists, (ii) administering relationships and related services, (iii) the detection, investigation and prevention of fraud and other crimes or malpractice and (iv) compliance with any requirement of law, regulation, associations, voluntary codes we decide to adopt, or good practice, anywhere in the world.

Your personal data may be disclosed to (i) any organisation in the J.P. Morgan group of companies, their agents, auditors, service providers, regulators, governmental or law enforcement agencies or any person we reasonably think necessary for the processing purposes outlined above, (ii) to actual or potential purchasers of parts of our business, and their respective advisers and insurers, and in relation to the transfer of our contractual rights and/or obligations or (iii)

if we or any person to whom we disclose personal data otherwise have a right or duty to disclose the personal data, or are allowed or compelled by law to do so. For example, financial institutions and payments and messaging service providers may from time to time be required, under subpoena or otherwise, to provide certain transaction information to authorities or other official bodies, whether located in the European Union or overseas, to assist in the prevention of terrorism, money laundering and other crimes.

We operate globally and therefore personal data may be processed and disclosed as described above in any country in which we conduct business or have a service provider. This may include some countries that do not provide the same statutory protection for Personal Data as the EU Data Protection Directive and implementing legislation or the laws of other European, Middle East and African (EMEA) Countries, where they may apply.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may record and monitor electronic communications (including e-mail and telephone) to ensure compliance with our legal and regulatory obligations and internal policies and for the purposes outlined above.

If you wish you may request a copy of the personal data held in relation to you by us. We may, where allowed by law, charge a fee for this. If any personal data is found to be wrong, you have the right to ask us to amend, update or delete it, as appropriate.

The information you provide in connection with this account will not be used for marketing purposes.
